

FISCAL NOTE

HB 2251 - SB 2294

January 31, 1998

SUMMARY OF BILL: (1) provides for the enactment of the Tennessee Private Investigator, Alarm Systems Contractor, and Private Security Contractor Act of 1998; (2) provides that the regulation of private investigators, alarm system contractors, and private protective services be consolidated into one entity to be known as the Tennessee Security Commission; and (3) allows the Commission to appoint a committee of experts to advise the commission with respect to any contemplated rulemaking under the provisions of this bill.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase State Expenditures - $18,000

Estimate assumes per diem and travel expenses for the committee of experts created to advise the commission with respect to rulemaking.

CERTIFICATION:

This is to duly certify that the information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "James A. Davenport". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of the first and last names being capitalized and prominent.

James A. Davenport, Executive Director

HB 2251 - SB 2294